Administrative Policies

Payment is due upon booking all Zoo on Wheels and Little Zoo on Wheels programs. We will offer a 30 day grace period for schools and public institutions paying by check or purchase order.

We recommend reserving your program at least three weeks in advance. Programs booking with less than three weeks will require full payment on a credit card or by check at the time of booking with no grace period.

Cancellations within three weeks of the program will not receive a refund.

Within three weeks of its occurrence, we will reschedule within one calendar year.

We do not offer refunds within three weeks of the program. If program is rescheduled at client request, a $25 service fee applies.

Rain dates may be reserved in advance for an additional fee with Manager Approval.

If you must cancel your program last minute please contact the Zoo as soon as possible at 215-243-5353. The Zoo on Wheels educator often begins packing animals 4 hours before your program so it is crucial for us to have advanced notice.

We may accommodate changes in time or date, depending on availability. There is a $25 service fee for changes made to your program within three weeks of the scheduled program.

Philadelphia Zoo is a non profit organization dedicated to saving species wildlife, education and recreation. Clients may not resell or charge admission to a third party for a Zoo on Wheels performance without prior consent and written contract.

Philadelphia Zoo logo may not be represented in client literature without prior consent.

Zoo on Wheels programs will be confirmed via email confirmation a week prior to the program. This is important to ensure that we are sending our staff and animals to the correct location and that the needs of our presenter and animals at your site are being met. We require response to this confirmation.

The Philadelphia Zoo is committed to the highest standards of animal care and presentation. If for any reason, Zoo on Wheels staff feels that conditions are not safe for live animals, we reserve the right to not present or to cancel and vacate the premises.

Our requirements for animal presentations are outlined in confirmation materials.
