

Going, Going, Gone Zoo Safari Hunt

Directions: Use the signs at the Zoo and what you have already studied and learned at your Zoo Class to fill in the blanks with the appropriate word or words, which complete the sentences.

If a sign says "Species in Danger," it means that the animal is considered endangered or threatened.

When you enter the Zoo, you see a statue of a mother guarding her young calf. What is the largest land mammal? _____

Using the Extinction Alert signs...define habitat fragmentation.

What are three ways humans impact animals?

What are the goals of a zoo? _____

Name one animal that is being bred and studied at the Philadelphia Zoo.

Species like the mongoose lemur can easily become

_____.

On what island are lemurs found? _____

Lemurs live in trees. What adaptations can you see on the animal that helps it climb up the branches? _____

The disruption of carefully balanced _____ has a devastating impact on amphibians.

Going, Going, Gone Zoo Safari Hunt

What large crocodilian was once hunted to make purses, wallets and shoes?

What is the success story of the crocodilian from question # 11?

Name two types of reptiles that endangered.

Name three primates that are endangered.

Describe in no fewer than three sentences one of the projects the Philadelphia Zoo is involved in to protect primates in the wild.

The giant river otter is threatened by habitat destruction, over-fishing,
_____, poaching and tourists.

Why do you think the bald eagle was removed from the _____ species list in 1999? Give at least one reason to support your answer. _____

Name one animal being affected by habitat loss.

Name one animal being affected by introduced species.

Name one animal being affected by population growth.

Name one animal being affected by pollution.

Name one animal being affected by overuse.

How can you become involved at the Philadelphia Zoo to help protect the environment?